

Plugg 2010: Full Program & the 20 Finalists For the Start-Ups Rally

Twenty of Europe's most exciting web & mobile startups to pitch at the Plugg conference to be held in Brussels, Belgium on the 11th of March, 2010.

Plugg is a one-day conference with a clear focus on celebrating entrepreneurship and innovation in Europe in the web/mobile 2.0 field. Plugg is the annual meeting point to listen to a slew of presentations by international executives from Nokia, Opera Software, Index Ventures, Duval Guillaume, eBuddy and many more (full program can be found online).

Plugg, also widely known as the conference where the top European startups, entrepreneurs, investors, pundits, trade press & bloggers annually meet up to discuss the current and future state of the Internet and mobile industry in Europe, is announcing the twenty nominees for the event's exhilarating pitching competition, the Plugg Start-Ups Rally.

Selected from a pool of 116 European startups who have submitted their profile online, a professional jury of industry pundits and venture capital investors have picked twenty companies that will give a short presentation about their product or service. They will each get 2 minutes to pitch their startup to the Plugg audience and the select crew of jury members will subsequently select 3 finalists to present for 10 minutes after that. Two awards will be given out: one for the overall winner and one for the startup that got the most votes from the audience.

Here are the twenty startups that will present at the the Plugg conference in Brussels on the 11th of March 2010, in alphabetical order:
